How to use this guide

Inside these pages you'll find a user-friendly companion for your family's Advent journey. It is both a calendar and guidebook, featuring one practice per day to prepare your heart and home for the birth of Christ. Some activities take five minutes and require no preparation, others are more labor-intensive and must be planned ahead of time. I suggest looking at the week ahead on Saturday and planning for what you will need in terms of materials and time. You'll notice that each Saturday is devoted to a service activity, because these tend to take a bit more time than most families have on a weekday.

In the calendar portion, you'll find the activities formatted as strips to be cut out. If you have a traditional Advent calendar with pockets or doors, place these strips inside the corresponding day. If you do not have a traditional Advent calendar, these strips can be made into a paper chain, so that one link may be torn off each day. There are several blank strips in case you would like to switch out your own activity for a particular day. A short advent-themed scripture passage is also included for each day.

In the guidebook, you will find an explanation, background information, and instructions for each day. These are merely suggestions—do not be overwhelmed! It is up to you to decide what will work for your family. Remember, Advent is about getting ready for the birth of Christ, but slowly and deliberately – not in a frantic and overwhelming way. This Advent guide is meant to be savored and enjoyed. It is not meant to be one more thing on your to-do list. Most of all, it is meant to help you prepare your heart and home for the birth of our Savior. Advent blessings,

The Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath provides a way of marking time through the Advent season. As another candle is lit each week, the light grows brighter and brighter leading up to the arrival of the Light of the World. This practice creates space to slow down amid a busy season of preparation, and to spend time in prayer and reflection as a family.

The circle shape of the wreath represents God's infinite and unending love. Evergreen represents everlasting life in Jesus Christ. The jagged leaves of holly represent the crown of thorns and the berries represent Christ's blood.

The candles represent Jesus as the Light of the World. Purple, the color of three candles, symbolizes not only penitence, but also royalty, signaling the coming of a King. Some churches use blue candles rather than purple, which symbolizes hope, the night sky before the dawn, the sea before creation, and Mary.

The lighter pink candle represents a lightening of the serious and somber mood of Advent and a turn towards the joy of Christmas. This candle is lit on the third Sunday of Advent, called Gaudete Sunday, which is Latin for "rejoice."

A fifth white candle--the Christ candle--may also be added to the middle and lit on Christmas day, and through Christmastide.

Making an Advent Wreath

You will need:

❄️ Greenery: If your family picks a live tree, ask the tree farm for your trimmings to use for your Advent wreath. Otherwise, forage your yard or neighborhood for evergreen, rosemary, holly, magnolia leaves, etc..

❄️ Advent candles: These are sold at most craft stores in a set of three purple and one pink taper candles. If you would like to light your wreath every night of Advent rather than just Sundays, you will need at least 12-inch candles.

Beeswax are more expensive but they will burn slower. Making your own beeswax Advent candles is a fun activity for children, and kits are readily available online.

❄️ Christ candle: This large white pillar candle is optional and set in the center of the wreath. It is typically lit on Christmas day and throughout Christmastide. You may wish to keep it on your table throughout the year to be lit during dinner as an invitation for Christ to be present at your table.

❄️ Advent wreath ring: A circle wreath form with four holes for candles

❄️ Garden shears

❄️ Floral wire

Directions:

Use floral wire to fasten greenery around the wreath ring. Spritz with water daily.

Note that holly is toxic for many animals, so if you have curious pets or children, you may want to skip the red berries altogether!

Advent Wreath Prayers

Each week of Advent has an assigned theme and scripture passage from the Revised Common Lectionary (an ecumenical Bible reading plan used by churches worldwide). The first week of Advent focuses on hope, the second week on peace, the third on joy (represented by the pink candle), and the fourth on love. Reflecting on these virtues each week rather than the scripture passages may be more appropriate for very young children.

Week One: Hope

Candle: One purple

Scripture: Jeremiah 33:14-16; Psalm 25:1-10; 1 Thess 3:9-13; Luke 21: 25-36

Prayer: God of hope, we light this candle as we prepare for the coming of your Son. Awaken our hearts to you this Advent season, so that when Christ arrives, we are ready to receive him with all our hearts, all our minds, and all our strength. Amen.

Hymn: Come Thou Long Expected Jesus

Prayers for weeks 2-4 can be found on December 8, 15, and 22.

The Christmas Tree

If you've been waiting, now is the day! Waiting until Advent to put up the Christmas tree reminds us that this is a season of waiting--difficult though it may be--and of preparation for Christmastide. In fact, traditionally, people have waited until Christmas Eve to put up the tree, and then kept it up for the twelve days of Christmas (through January 6). Not your cup of tea? Then, skip ahead to the Christmas Tree blessing on the next page.

Decorating the Tree

There are many way to decorate the Christmas tree so that it intentionally reflects the slow and steady preparation of the Advent season. Taking this approach reminds us that preparing our hearts for the coming King is a process, not an event. Here are some examples:

- Keep the tree bare and wait until Christmas Eve to decorate.
- Gradually add more ornaments or lights each week.
- Decorate with purple ornaments (the color of Advent) and switch to white and/or red on Christmas Eve.
- Decorate using Jesse Tree ornaments, which tell the story of Jesus' lineage from the Old Testament prophecies to his birth.

Christmas Tree Blessing

Blessing

The Christmas tree is a symbol of God's eternal life. While the leaves outside wither and die, the evergreen springs forth as a reminder of the everlasting life we have through Christ, our Lord.

May the lights on this tree remind us that Jesus is the Light of the World who has overcome the darkness.

May the (star or angel) on top remind us of the angel's announcement: A savior is born! Peace on earth and goodwill toward all people.

May the gifts below remind us of the most precious gift of all: Jesus Christ.

Prayer

Lord, bless this tree around which we will make many memories this Advent season. Help us to make room in our hearts for your gift to us: Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Nativity: The Manger

Another way to live into the slow and steady preparation of Advent is by gradually laying out the nativity set week by week rather than all at once. For this approach, it's best to use a set that includes a stable and a baby Jesus that is detachable from the manger so it can sit empty until Christmas Day.

To stay true to the story, the magi should not be set out until Christmas Day. They should start their journey in a different room than the Nativity set; over the twelve days of Christmas, move them around the house until they arrive at the manger on Epiphany (January 6), which is the day the church celebrates the magi's late arrival to Jesus. Kids love to wake up in the morning and see where the magi have moved to overnight!

This week, set out only the stable and the empty manger, reflecting on the fact that the son of God, the King of Kings...was born in a barn.

Scripture

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them. - Luke 2:4-7

Reflection

I wonder what kind of home a king lives in?

I wonder what kind of bed a king sleeps in?

I wonder if you have ever been in a barn? I wonder what it was like?

What did you see? What did you smell?

I wonder what it would be like to sleep in a barn?

I wonder why that is where Jesus was born?

Dried Orange Ornaments

Oranges are a traditional Christmas fruit not simply because they are one of the few fruits that ripen during wintertime, but also because they have come to symbolize gold coins from a popular St. Nicholas legend. According to the story, three sisters were going to be sold off into slavery because their father could not afford to pay their dowries. Upon hearing this, Saint Nicholas threw three bags of gold down their chimney, landing perfectly in their stockings drying over the fire. Over the years, it became tradition to put oranges in Christmas stockings, and to dry them for beautiful and fragrant decorations during the Advent season.

Directions

This is a simple craft that is perfect for children's participation. Blotting the excess juice off the oranges is an excellent job for them.

1. Slice oranges approximately 1/2 in. wide.
2. Blot excess juice on both sides.
3. Place on tray lined with parchment paper.
4. Bake at 250 for 3-4 hours, flipping on the hour.
5. Once cool, string to use as garland or ornaments. When placed in front of lights on the tree, they light up and look almost like stained glass.

St. Nicholas Day Eve

St. Nicholas was born around 270 AD in Asia Minor, located in modern day Turkey. Though not much is known for certain about his life, his remarkable generosity is undisputed. Nicholas was born into a devout Christian family, and when his parents died, he sold off their belongings and distributed his inheritance among the poor. Nicholas became a priest, and eventually the Bishop of Myra, purportedly attending the First Council of Nicaea in 325 AD, from which the Nicene Creed (“We believe in one God, the Father Almighty...”)—recited weekly in churches around the world—comes.

St. Nicholas and the Gold Coins

Perhaps the most famous story about St. Nicholas is that of the “Three Sisters and the Gold Coins.” Nicholas heard of a man who had three daughters, but no money to pay for their dowry. With no prospect of a husband or employment, these girls would have likely been forced into a life of slavery or prostitution. Nicholas heard of their plight, and threw a bag of gold coins—the cost of one dowry—through their open window one night. He did the same thing the next two nights, and the three sisters were saved from a life of misery. There are many stories like this of his secret gift-giving, and his love of children in particular.

St. Nick Stockings and Shoes

Eventually, Nicholas was named a saint, and his feast day was set for December 6. On the night of December 5, children around the world set stockings and shoes by the fire place or front door for St. Nicholas to fill with treats such as:

- Bags of gold chocolate coins
- A clementine or orange (symbolizing the gold coins given in the dowry as well as the food St. Nicholas gave to those in need)
- A candy cane to symbolize his bishop's crozier (the stick that looks like a shepherd's staff)
- An Advent or Christmas book (a great way to build your collection!)
- Other small treats
- Our family also includes one dollar for the kids to give away to someone in need just as St. Nicholas did with his inheritance

Additional Activities

Write a letter to St. Nick: Rather than addressing a letter to the North Pole, kids can leave their letters to St. Nick by their stockings or shoes on December 5

St. Nicholas Pizza: It's unclear how this one became a tradition, but pizza is a popular celebratory dish for St. Nicholas Day eve--perhaps because it's shaped like a gold coin! A cross is often added to the middle with cheese or another topping.

St. Nicholas Day

St. Nicholas morning is filled with merriment as children rush to find the surprises left for them in their stockings or shoes. Over a special breakfast or dinner, read one of the recommended St. Nicholas books and offer the prayer on the next page.

St. Nicholas Pancakes

Add some cinnamon and nutmeg to your pancake mix, use chocolate chips for eyes, whipped cream for a beard, and sliced strawberries for a hat and you have festive spiced St. Nicholas pancakes for breakfast.

St. Nicholas Cookies

Traditional St. Nicholas spice cookies are called Spekulatius, which either comes from the Latin for "mirror (speculum)" (because they often have St. Nick's face on them) or the Dutch word for "spice." Recipes are readily available on the internet (visit stnicholascenter.org), and there is also one provided in The Baker's Dozen: A Saint Nicholas Tale, one of the recommended children's book listed for today.

If you do not have a St. Nicholas cookie cutter, a candy cane shape cookie can represent his Bishop's crozier, or you could cut out stockings or "gold coins." A St. Nicholas cookie cutter would be a great addition to your children's stocking so you have it to use for years to come!

Prayer

God of joy and cheer,
we thank you for your servant,
the good bishop Nicholas.
In loving the poor, he showed us your kindness;
In caring for your children, he revealed your love.
Make us thoughtful without need of reward
so that we, too, may be faithful followers of Jesus. Amen.

Donating: Making Room

Clearing out the Closet

Help your children go through their toy boxes and closets to select items in good condition for donation. (You can do this too!) Not only does this activity make room for the gifts to come at Christmas, but more importantly, it is a reminder that just as our homes can become cluttered, so can our hearts and lives. Advent is about making room for Jesus, and to do that, sometimes we have to clear out what is broken, unnecessary, or just plain taking up too much space.

Giving away toys and clothes is also a tangible way of connecting to the true story of Saint Nicholas who you will have celebrated earlier this week. He can so easily become nothing more than a jolly old man who gives good kids toys, rather than a saint who loved and served Christ by loving and serving the downtrodden—especially children.

If you've recently cleared out closets or don't have items to donate, you can alternatively participate in an "Angel Tree" type activity, where specific items are purchased for children in need.

Advent Wreath

On the second Sunday of Advent, we light the candle of peace, a reminder that the Light of the World is our Prince of Peace, and comes this season bringing peace of earth. As you go throughout your days during this second week of Advent, ask yourself "How can I be a peacemaker? How can I live in Christ's peace?"

Week Two: Peace

Candle: Two purple

Scripture: Malachi 3:1-4; Luke 1:68-79; Philippians 1:3-11; Luke 3:1-6

Prayer: God of peace, during this Advent season, keep us from getting caught up in the busyness and chaos of the world around us. Help us to slow down, so that we may find rest in the Prince of Peace, your son, Jesus Christ. As we prepare for his coming, make us instruments of your peace in our homes, in our schools, in our work and in our world. Amen.

Hymn: Comfort, Comfort Ye My People

Comfort, Comfort Ye My People

The Nativity: Animals

This week we add the animals to the stable and marvel at what kind of scene it must have been to have the Son of God born among donkeys and cows. Notice there is no accompanying scripture reading because the Bible never mentions animals at the scene--only that Jesus was placed in a manger, so we assume there were animals present. Fun fact: Saint Francis, who is known for his love of animals, is credited with adding animals to the first nativity scene.

Reflection

- I wonder what that stable smelled like?
- I wonder what it sounded like?
- I wonder why God chose to include animals in the story of Christ's birth?

Read Under the Tree

Advent need not be flashy and exciting to be memorable or meaningful for your family. This evening, pick your favorite children's Advent book and read it under the lights of the Christmas tree or snuggled up by the fire. This is a simple and quiet activity, and that is just the point: Advent is a season of reflection, of quiet moments, and of simplifying our lives to create space for the coming of the King.

Reflection

- I wonder which part of the story you liked best?
- I wonder which part of the story you liked least?
- I wonder which part of the story is most important?
- I wonder which part of the story is about Jesus?
- I wonder which part of the story is about you?

Candy Canes

The Legend of the Candy Cane

Candy canes have long been touted for their symbolism. Christians from liturgical backgrounds note that candy canes are made in the shape of a shepherd's staff (think Jesus as the Good Shepherd) or bishop's crozier (think St. Nicholas) and in the liturgical colors of martyrdom (red) and Christmastide (white). Christians from evangelical or free-church backgrounds offer a different but equally theologically-significant explanation: when flipped upside down, candy canes make a "J" for Jesus, and are the colors of white to symbolize purity and red to symbolize Jesus' blood.

Candy Cane Hunt

The night before or during nap time, hide candy canes around the house for the kids to find--you might even let them use their Christmas stockings to collect (another fun way to connect the candy cane to St. Nicholas' crozier). Once they are all found and gathered, collect them in a pile and explain the symbolism or read one of the optional books below. Pray the "Candy Cane Blessing" listed on the next page over the pile, and then distribute them to friends and neighbors (gift cards provided on next page) or hang them on the tree.

Blessing of the Candy Canes

Gracious God, In the spirit of Saint Nicholas we ask for your blessing on these candy canes. May their flavor sweeten our hearts with compassion and kindness. May their shape remind us to be shepherds of grace and generosity. May their bright colors attune us to the delightful sights and sounds of this sacred season. Inspire us to be like Saint Nicholas, who brought comfort and joy to children and their families. We ask this in the name of the Holy Child, Jesus whose coming we await with anticipation and love.

Silent Starry Night

Advent can quickly become a hustle and bustle. Take a moment this evening to slow down and quiet your heart. With a cup of hot cocoa or peppermint tea in hand, take a walk, or sit outside and look up at the stars in silence. Reflect on the fact that many of these are the very stars the shepherds gazed upon as they tended their sheep outside the hills of Bethlehem, and the same stars that magi studied in the far East. After a period of silence, close with family prayer or a song.

Hymn

St. Lucia Day

Historical Background

St. Lucia, or Lucy, was born around 283 CE in Syracuse, Sicily. When she was a young woman, the Roman Emperor Diocletian launched a violent persecution of Christians all across the Empire. She was born into a devout noble family and from a young age pledged herself to God, choosing to remain unmarried so that she could instead give her dowry—and her life—to the poor and suffering.

Lucy's mother, however, had different plans for her and arranged for her to marry a wealthy pagan man. When Lucy refused, he reported her as a Christian to the authorities. She was martyred for refusing to recant her faith.

Even if you don't know of St. Lucy, you can likely picture how she is often depicted: a young blonde girl dressed in white robes, a red sash around her waist, and a wreath of candles adorning her head. This image comes from the legend that she took food and aid to the Christians living in the catacombs to escape their persecutors. Under the cover of darkness, she wore a wreath of candles on her head to light the way—because her hands were full of supplies. Her white dress is a baptismal robe, the red sash, symbolic of the blood of her martyrdom, and the candles signal the light of Christ as well as the name Lucia, which means “light” in Latin.

With a name that means light, it's fitting that Lucy's feast day falls during Advent, a season when the Light of the World is born amid the darkest and longest days of the year. Lucy's feast day, December 13, was set to align with what used to be the Winter Solstice, and still falls very close to it today.

St. Lucy Day is thought to mark a turn from the penitence and solemnity of Advent toward the light and joy of Christmastide.

St. Lucy Day is celebrated around the world, but is particularly popular in Scandinavian countries. Early on the morning of December 13th, the oldest daughter, dressed in a white robe, red sash and wreath crown, rises early and delivers sweet rolls made with saffron (“Lucy buns” or lussekatt) to family members in bed. This is intended to be an enactment of Lucy bringing food to the hungry.

In Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Finland, there are processions throughout cities and churches of girls dressed as Lucy, carrying lussekatt and singing Christmas carols. Boys participate as "star boys"—wearing white cone hats decorated with golden stars. Sometimes these processions visit malls, schools, and assisted living facilities as well.

To celebrate St. Lucy Day, bake lussekatt or another type of spiced sweet bread (cinnamon quick bread, for example) for your “St. Lucy(s)” and/or "Star Boys" to deliver in the morning. The children may deliver them to the family in bed, or perhaps they might deliver them to neighbors—a tradition which seems in keeping with the spirit of St. Lucy who brought food to others as a ministry.

Cheater St. Lucy Buns

If you'd like to try your hand at traditional lussekatt, SimplyRecipes.com, has a great recipe. Otherwise, here's a quick and easy recipe for "cheater" St. Lucy Buns made from canned cinnamon rolls. The two raisins represent eyes, because St. Lucia is the patron saint of the blind. One story says her eyes were gauged out, but of course you needn't share that information with sensitive children.

Ingredients

- 1 can of cinnamon rolls with icing
- Raisins, dates or dried cranberries (optional)
- Cinnamon (preferably saffron if you have it)

Directions

- Unroll cinnamon rolls
- Shape them into an "S"
- Insert raisin or other dried fruit into the two crooks at the bottom and top of the "S"
- Lightly sprinkle with cinnamon (or saffron)
- Bake according to directions on package
- Drizzle with icing

Cinnamon Roll Wreath Crown Recipe

A “Cinnamon Roll Wreath Crown” is another fun and easy breakfast treat that is reminiscent of the crown of candles Lucy wore on her head. You'll find another cheater recipe for this made from canned cinnamon rolls below. During breakfast, your family can pray the St. Lucy Day liturgy provided on the next page and read the lesson or another book about the life of St. Lucy.

Ingredients

1 can of cinnamon rolls with icing

Birthday candles

Directions

Unroll cinnamon rolls and make three strands

Braid or twist the strands

Shape the braid into a circle

(now it should look like a wreath crown)

Bake according to directions on package

Drizzle with icing

Place candles in the wreath (now it looks like St. Lucy's wreath crown!)

St. Lucia Lesson & Liturgy

Blessing

Light wreath crown candles or Advent candles and say:

“May the light of Jesus shine in our hearts.”

Song

(to the tune of “Are You Sleeping (Frère Jacques)”)

O Saint Lucy, O Saint Lucy

Dressed in white, dressed in white

Lighting up the darkness, lighting up the darkness

Shining bright, shining bright!

[Blow out candles]

Prayer

Dear God, we thank you for this food, and for your servant, Lucy, who brought food to the hungry. May we, too, always be willing to love and serve you. Amen.

Lesson

There once was a girl named Lucy, not much older than yourself. She lived long time ago—around the same time as St. Nicholas—in a place called Sicily, which is very close to Italy. Lucy lived in a time when it was not easy to be a Christian. In fact, sometimes it was downright dangerous. It was against the law to believe in Jesus. Sometimes Christians were punished or even put to death by the Roman governor. But Lucy loved Jesus very much, and she loved people just like Jesus did. She loved to spend her days helping people who were sick and poor and hungry.

Some say that Lucy even brought food to the Christians hiding in dark tunnels underneath the ground. They hid there so no one would find them and punish them for believing in God. Lucy's hands were so full carrying food to them that she could not carry a candle or lantern to see her way through the dark underground tunnels. Instead, she wore a crown of candles on her head.

Lucy loved helping people so much that she decided rather than getting married and having a family, she would give her money away and devote her whole life to God, and then the church would be her family.

This made Lucy's mother very worried. She knew how dangerous it was to be a Christian. And she was scared that Lucy would not have enough money if she didn't get married. So Lucy's mother arranged for her to marry a man who was very wealthy, but did not love God. Lucy refused to marry him, and this made the man very angry. So angry that he accused her of being a Christian, which he knew would put her in danger.

When the Roman governor demanded that she give up her faith in God, Lucy was very brave. She loved Jesus, and would never turn her back on him. Lucy was put to death, and now she gets to be in Heaven with God always. Saints who died because they loved God are called martyrs, and they wear a special red sash so we know who they are. I wonder why the martyrs sash is red? Red is for the blood they shed.

We remember these saints for the sacrifice they made on special days throughout the year. Saint Lucy is celebrated today, December 13. All around the world, people remember her with light because her name, Lucia, means light. In Scandinavia, there are big festivals where people light candles and sing songs about St. Lucy. In people's homes, girls get up early in the morning, and they put on a white gown with a red sash. Then they put a wreath of candles on their head, and bring rolls to their family in bed. This reminds everyone that Saint Lucy fed the hungry.

We celebrate Saint Lucy's special day in Advent. The candles on her head remind us of the Advent wreath, and they remind us that Jesus is the Light of the World. Let the light of Christ shine bright in us like Lucy.

This Little Light of Mine

Prayer

God our Father, we thank you for sending your Son to be the Light of the World, and for your servant, Lucy, who was a faithful witness to his light. Help us to follow in St. Lucy's footsteps and be a light for you always. Amen.

Blessing Bags

Blessing bags are disposable bags filled with non-perishable food and sanitary items for the homeless. They are a simple, yet meaningful way to serve Jesus in “the least of these” this Advent, bringing Joy to the world. Keep them in your car and give one away as you come across someone in need. Alternatively, take them to a local food pantry.

Content Suggestions

Be sure to include a handmade Christmas card—a great project for the kids. Other suggestions are a water bottle, granola bar, band aids, chapstick, gloves, socks, toothbrush and toothpaste, baby wipes, hard candy, $5 gift cards, single bus passes

Reflection

Just as Advent is about the first coming of Jesus, it is also about his coming again. Read Matthew 25:31-40 as a family and discuss why serving the poor is an “Advent activity”, and how it prepares the world for Jesus’ return.

Prayer

Almighty and most merciful God, bless these bags and those who will receive them, for you know each one by name. Help us always to remember before you all poor and neglected persons whom it would be easy for us to forget: the homeless and the destitute, the refugee and the overlooked, and all who have none to care for them. Grant this, Father, for the love of your Son, who for our sake became poor, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Advent Wreath

The third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudete Sunday--a word which means "rejoice" in Latin. This Sunday marks a turn from the solemn preparation and penitence of Advent toward joy as we anticipate the coming King. This lighter mood during this week of Advent is marked visibly by the lighter rose candle.

Week Three: Joy

Candle: Two purple and one pink

Scripture: Zephaniah 3:14-20; Isaiah 12:2-6; Philippians 4:4-7;
Luke 3:7-18

Prayer: God of joy, it is in your love that we find lasting joy. Keep us from seeking happiness in things that will not last. Teach us instead to find joy in the gift of your Son, who came into this world with nothing, yet gave us everything. May his joy fill our hearts and overflow to all we meet this Advent season. Amen.

Hymn: Joy to the World

Las Posadas

Las Posadas means "the inns" in Spanish, and is a commemoration of Mary and Joseph's painstaking journey to find lodging, and a celebration of the holy hospitality they received. It is a nine day festival observed mostly in Latin America, where one family hosts, and the "pilgrims" dressed as Mary and Joseph go door to door (planned in advance) in search of lodging. At each door they are turned away with a traditional song, until at the final home they are invited in, where a nativity scene and party awaits.

It is important to appreciate this tradition without appropriating it. Tonight, sit down with a cup of Mexican Hot Chocolate and Tomie DePaola's lovely book, The Night of Las Posadas. Discuss how Las Posadas invites us to consider how in opening up our lives and doors to the stranger, the neighbor, and the refugee, we welcome Christ himself to come in and take up residence. Also give thanks for the people who have cultivated this tradition and kept it alive.

Mexican Hot Chocolate

Mexican hot chocolate is a dark hot cocoa with a secret ingredient: cinnamon. Both the Abuelita and Ibarra brands are great and available at most grocery stores, but you can also make this yourself by adding cinnamon to your hot chocolate mix--and a dash of cayenne if you're feeling spicy!

Nativity: The Shepherds & Angels

This week, we add the shepherds and angels to the nativity scene and reflect on what it might have been like to be visited by a host of angels announcing the birth of Christ. Would you be frightened? Excited? Anxious? Most importantly, would you be ready?

Scripture

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.” Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.” When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.” - Luke 2:8-15

Reflection

I wonder who the shepherds were?

I wonder why the angels appeared to them?

I wonder why God wanted shepherds to visit baby Jesus?

I wonder what the shepherds felt when they saw the angels?

I wonder what the "glory of the Lord" looked like?

I wonder what "peace on earth" looks like?

Hymn

Food Suggestions

In keeping with the Shepherd theme, serve Shepherd's Pie for dinner, or lay out a blanket in front of the Christmas tree and eat a "Shepherd's meal" of cheeses, pita, meats, fruits, nuts and olives. Enjoy Angel Food Cake for dessert.

Dance for Joy

The third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudete Sunday--a word which means "rejoice" in Latin. This Sunday marks a turn from the solemn preparation and penitence of Advent toward joy as we anticipate the coming King. This lighter mood during this week of Advent is marked visibly by the lighter rose candle. What greater or more practical way to bring joy than with a quick dance party around the Christmas tree? The song suggestions below are admittedly secular, but sure to get everyone dancing!

Christmas Card Prayers

Around the dinner table this evening or at bedtime, gather all the Christmas cards your family has received this Advent season and place them in a pile. Read letters aloud, share special memories you have of that person, but most importantly, pray for them. If you'd like to pray for each family individually, split the cards up, and each person in your family can take a turn praying. When you finished, place all the cards in the middle and offer the following blessing:

Prayer

Dear God, We give you thanks for the friends and family represented by these cards. Bless each one of them this Advent season and in the coming year. May they know the love and joy that comes through your Son, our Savior, this Christmas season. Amen.

Secret Santa

Just as St. Nicholas did kind things for people in secret, do something for a family member or friend today without them knowing. It may be helpful to put each family member's name into a hat and choose randomly. At dinner, reflect on why we give in secret using the scripture below.

Scripture

“Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.” -Matt 6:1-4

Reflection

I wonder how you felt after doing something kind for someone today?

Was it difficult to keep it a secret?

I wonder why St. Nicholas didn't want people to know that he was the one giving them gifts and doing kind things?

I wonder why Jesus says to give in secret?

I wonder what happens if you give so others can see?

I wonder why Jesus says it is better to give than to receive?

Advent Wreath

Today begins the last week of Advent--the final countdown to Christmas. Kids will be out of school, you will have errands to run, and perhaps you may be traveling. It will be easy to get lost in the hustle and bustle. Today, take time to be quiet and still as you light all four candles of the Advent wreath, and reorient yourself toward the Light of the World.

Week Four: Love

Candle: Three purple and one pink

Scripture: Micah 5:2-5a; Psalm 80:1-7; Hebrews 10:5-10; Luke 1:39-55

Prayer: God of love, you sent your Son, Jesus, to shine bright like the sun, lighting the way for all who walk in darkness. May the light of Christ's hope, peace, joy and love shine bright in us as we approach his coming, so that we may be ready to welcome him on Christmas day. Amen.

Candlelit Dinner

This evening, eat dinner by the light of your Advent wreath. Start in total darkness, reminding your family of how dark the world is without Jesus. In the darkness, recite John 1:1. You'll need to memorize it since you'll be in sitting in darkness! Light the first candle and read John 1:2-3. Light the second candle and read John 1:4. Finally, light the third candle and read John 1:5. You might choose to pass the lighter and the Bible around the table and each person gets a turn.

Reflection

With all of the candles lit, eat dinner and discuss:

I wonder what the world was like in the beginning, before God made anything?

I wonder how you feel when you are in the dark?

In what ways does the world feel dark this time of year?

I wonder who was with God in the beginning?

I wonder how Jesus is the light of the world?

I wonder how we can be light in the world?

Nativity: Mary and Joseph

This evening before bed time, add Mary and Joseph to the nativity scene.

Scripture

While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them...And Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. -Luke 2:6-7, 19

Reflection

I wonder how Mary and Joseph must have felt when they were told there was no room in the inn?

I wonder what it was like for Mary to hold the Son of God in her arms?

I wonder how we can ponder this story in our hearts?
